Sample distributions of model variables with KDE estimates